PROFESSOR MÜLLER'S
LIFE OF FIELD-MARSHAL
COUNT MOLTKE.

Translated by PERCY E. PINKERTON,

AND EDITED BY

Capt. H. M. HOZIER.

"Müller's admirable Life of Moltke."—Globe, in leader on Lord Chelmsford, March 17.

"Most graphic and picturesque."—Morning Post.

"A highly interesting monograph of this illustrious soldier."—Court Journal.

"This interesting account of Moltke's life."—United Service Gazette.

"Of absorbing interest to all.....Those who have undertaken it have shown themselves worthy of the subject, and deserve our best thanks for presenting us with a book so full of interest—at the same time so true a description of a master-mind."—Examiner.

"Of the great, manly, modest old soldier, Moltke, we in England at all events have heard so little that there is scarcely a page in this admirable memoir that will not come upon the majority of readers with the agreeable shock of a pleasant revelation. The book is, indeed, a delightful one, admirably translated and edited.....It might have been written by an Englishman for the impartiality of the opinions in it."

Mayfair.

"The volume is of great interest.....It presents to us a man of fine character, and amazing force of intellect and will.We must not be tempted to further extracts, although the quotations given from Moltke's letters are full of interest. We can only repeat what we have remarked already, that the book is one which ought to be read."—Literary World.

"The history of the two great campaigns, which are replete with military achievements of the highest order.....cannot be studied with other than absorbing interest.....In recommending this volume to our readers, we can only say that the translation of Mr. Pinkerton reads easily and well, and that the task of editing it has been performed by Capt. Hozier with success. The advantages afforded by his personal acquaintance with the two campaigns.....have enabled the editor to discharge his duty in a very satisfactory manner, and to the great benefit of the biographer and of the readers of his work."—Army and Navy Gazette, April 19.

"It is just what a biography should be—brief, and yet full enough to give a clear idea of all the leading incidents in a Life that was well worth writing."

Naval and Military Gazette, April 16.

"It is not a theme about which the author need feel diffident, lest the subject he has selected should prove 'caviare to the general.'.....We can cordially recommend the reader to turn to these pages for himself."—Civil Service Gazette, April 12.

"Author, translator, and editor may be congratulated upon their respective shares in the production of this work, for all have done well, especially the author, who has had the good sense to write the Life of the great strategist within moderate limits.....The materials for this admirable biography have been derived from works either written by Moltke himself, or from information which he has himself furnished."

PEPPER'S QUININE and IRON TONIC

Purifies and Enriches the Blood.

Strengthens the Nerves and Muscular System.

Promotes Appetite and Improves Digestion.

Animates the Spirits and Mental Faculties.

Thoroughly reconstitutes the general bodily health, and induces a proper healthy condition of the Nervous and Physical Forces.

PEPPER'S QUININE and IRON TONIC.

Bottles containing 33 measured doses, 4s. 6d.

Sold by all Chemists.

In the preparation of this Tonic the greatest care is exercised. It is a faithful compound of Quinine, the active principle of Yellow Cinchona, or Peruvian Bark, blended with a refined trustworthy preparation of Iron, produced in a form which the experience of many years has proved the best. It offers a ready means of gaining the strength and other benefits afforded by Quinine and Iron, without any fear of ill consequences.—The name of J. PEPPER is signed in red ink on the label.

TARAXACUM and PODOPHYLLIN.—A fluid combination for the Derangement of the Liver, particularly when arising from slight congestion. By gently stimulating the action of the liver and slightly moving the bowels, the heavy, drowsy feeling, with sensations of fullness, headache, pain beneath the shoulders, and other indications of Dyspepsia are removed. Taraxacum and Podophyllin is much safer than calomel or blue pill, and quite as effective for removing bile.—Prepared by J. PEPPER, 237 Tottenham Court Road, London, whose name must be on the label.—Bottles 2s. 6d. and 1s. 6d. each. Sold by all Chemists.

LOCKYER'S SULPHUR HAIR RESTORER.

Large bottles, 1s. 6d. Restores the Colour to grey hair in a few days. The best, safest, and cheapest. Quite equal to expensive ones. Sold by Chemists and Hairdressers.
